

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19

HISTORICAL REVIEW OF EVANGELICAL-
MORMON RELATIONS

DR. CRAIG HAZEN
BIOLA UNIVERSITY
Dr. Craig Hazen is a Professor of Comparative Religion and Apologetics at Biola University. Dr. Hazen is the founder and director of the M.A. Program in Christian Apologetics at Biola, the largest program of its kind.

DR. SPENCER FLUHMAN
BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY
Spencer Fluhman is Assistant Professor of Church History & Doctrine at Brigham Young University. He teaches courses on American religious history and early LDS history and doctrine. His current research examines American perceptions of early Latter-day Saints.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19

MISSIONAL PRINCIPLES AND GUIDELINES FOR INTERFAITH DIALOGUE

DR. DOUG MCCONNELL
FULLER SEMINARY
Dr. Doug McConnell is Dean of Intercultural Studies at Fuller Seminary and has spent many years as a missionary overseas. He has written books on leadership, ministering to those with great need, and sharing your faith.

DR. ROBERT MILLET
BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY
Dr. Robert Millet has been with Brigham Young University since 1983 and has since served as Ancient Scripture Department Chair and Dean of Religious Education. Dr. Millet has written books on Mormon doctrine and the issues that exist between Mormons and evangelicals. Dr. Millet travels worldwide with Pastor Greg Johnson, modeling a “convicted civility” to mixed audiences of both Latter-day Saints and evangelicals.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20

THE LEGITIMACY OF MORMON/EVANGELICAL
DIALOGUE, AND SHOULD WE EVEN BE TALKING?

DR. TRUMAN MADSEN
BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY
Dr. Truman Madsen is a philosopher, essayist, teacher, and biographer. He is Professor Emeritus of Philosophy at Brigham Young University. Madsen is an accomplished scholar both inside and outside of the LDS church.

DR. WILLIAM HEERSINK
SALT LAKE
THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
Formerly a local church pastor, Dr. Heersink is now serving as a professor of theology and missions and Interim President of Salt Lake Theological Seminary. Having lived in Utah for more than 30 years, Bill has a passion for and has been involved in LDS/evangelical dialogue.

REV. GREG JOHNSON
STANDING TOGETHER
Standing Together founder and president, Rev. Gregory Johnson, was raised in the Mormon faith and has spent the last 26 years as an evangelical Christian. He has spent the last 15 years in Utah in full-time Christian service as a pastor, a teacher, and as the Director of Standing Together. Pastor Greg Johnson will host the National Student Dialogue Conference as our conference M.C.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20

SPIRITUAL FORMATION AND INTERFAITH DIALOGUE

DR. RICHARD BENNETT
BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY
Dr. Richard Bennett is professor of Church History and Doctrine & Covenants at Brigham Young University. He is the author of several books and articles regarding LDS History.

DR. JERRY ROOT
WHEATON COLLEGE
Jerry Root, a professor at Wheaton College since 1996, is well-versed on the life and writing of C.S. Lewis. Additionally, Dr. Root currently serves as the Associate Director of the Billy Graham Center on the campus of Wheaton College.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20

THE ROLE OF GRACE & WORKS AS IT RELATES TO DOCTRINE & TRADITION

DR. CRAIG BLOMBERG
DENVER SEMINARY
Dr. Craig Blomberg, distinguished professor of New Testament at Denver Seminary, co-wrote the landmark book How Wide the Divide in 1997 with BYU professor Stephen Robinson. Dr. Blomberg has written several New Testament commentaries and has established himself as an authority of the historical reliability of the New Testament Gospels.

DR. CAMILLE FRONK
BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY
Dr. Camille Fronk Olson is a professor of Ancient Scripture and has been at Brigham Young University since 1993. Dr. Fronk has conducted research on the New Testament and the culture and history of the LDS church.